The Purpose of processing Client Data

I hold and use client data in order to provide you with the best possible learning experience, support and advice.

Lawful Basis for holding and using your Information

As a full member of the Association of Reflexologists, I abide by the AoR Code of Practice and Ethics. The lawful basis under which I hold and use your information is my legitimate interests i.e. my requirement to retain the information in order to provide you with the most appropriate training, follow up support, and advice.

What information I hold and what I do with it

In order to give professional learning opportunities and follow up support to students the following information will be held:

- Your contact details
- Case studies submitted (if relevant). These must be submitted anonymously and will be deleted once marked
- Copies of certificates issued and records of students' progress.

Your personal contact details may be shared with the Association of Reflexologists (AoR) on completion of your course. The AoR may contact you to ask you to provide them with feedback on the course. This is part of the criteria for AoR CPD approval. (The AoR will only keep your information for 6 months and will only contact you in regards to feedback)

I will not share your information with anyone else (other than within my own practice, or as required for legal process) without explaining why it is necessary, and getting your explicit consent (see below).

Your data will not be transferred outside the EU without your consent.

I will keep your personal information for 5 years.

I may contact you by email, phone, text or WhatsApp in relation to:

- Providing you with additional supporting material for the course
- Reflexology information or information related to health
- Future training events, special offers and promotions (you may unsubscribe from this at any time)

Protecting Your Personal Data

I am committed to ensuring that your personal data is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, I have put in place appropriate technical, physical and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect from you.

Your Rights

GDPR gives you the following rights:

- The right to be informed: To know how your information will be held and used (this notice).
- The right of access: To see your tutor's records of your personal information, so you know what is held about you and can verify it.
